ARTICLE - 7 SUBSCRIPTION FEES

7.1 Annual Membership Fee

Members of the ASSOCIATION are liable to pay annual membership fees. Applicants for membership are also liable to pay the designated amount for the given year.

7.1.1 Annual membership fee is determined by the General Assembly to be effective until the next ordinary session of the General Assembly.

7.1.2 Membership fees for the subsequent years other than the year that membership application was made are payable from the first day of the year until the last day of the year. Whether the payment of the fee will be made in cash or in installments is based on the related decisions by the General Assembly as well as the payment periods. Membership fee payments cannot be postponed to the subsequent year. Membership fee for the year of application is to be made at the time of application.

7.1.3 TED University undergraduate final year students, graduate students and alumni are required to pay 10% of the designated annual membership fee for the first year of their membership. They are liable to pay full membership fee for the subsequent years.

7.1.4 Members at and over the age of 65 are liable to pay 10% of the annual membership fee.

7.1.5 Those who were dismissed from the ASSOCIATION due to failure to pay membership fees are to be admitted again provided that they have covered their debts from the past years of their membership.

7.1.6 Applicants who have paid their initial membership fees prior to their admission by the Administrative Board receive a full refund in case they have not been admitted.

7.1.7 Association members who fail to pay their membership fees for two successive years can be dismissed from membership by the approval of the General Assembly upon proposal of the Administrative Board.

7.2 Admission Fee

Applicants for membership are liable to pay an admission fee for one time only. Base amount for the admission fee is to be determined by the Administrative Board. Applicants may wish to make a donation higher than the base amount. Failure to pay or delaying the admission fee are not subject to any sanction or restriction for the members.

ARTICLE - 8 ORIGINAL MEMBERSHIP AND HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

Two types of memberships are available at the ASSOCIATION, being original membership and honorary membership.

8.1 Original Membership

Any real person who meets membership conditions may become ORIGINAL MEMBER. Original members of the ASSOCIATION are persons who have undertaken the liabilities of the ASSOCIATION membership with their free wills and who are to enjoy the benefits of the membership. Membership rights include nomination for any kind of duty and voting. Membership liabilities include participation in the activities of existing or potential working units, attending General Assembly sessions, paying membership fees in time, and perform activities in line with the objectives of the ASSOCIATION.
8.2 Honorary Membership

Respectable persons in the University or persons who have performed or may potentially perform activities in favor of and in line with the objectives of the ASSOCIATION may become Honorary Members, provided that they consent, with the 2/3 majority vote of the Administrative Board upon written proposal by three association members, at least one of which being Administrative Board member.

ARTICLE - 9  MEMBERSHIP ADMISSION

Real persons who fulfill all requirements mentioned in the Article 6 for the ASSOCIATION membership:

9.1 Those who have paid the admission fee as stated in the Article 7 and applied to the Administrative Board of the Association with the requested documents are admitted to membership by the approval of the Administrative Board, after having confirmed that the documents are genuine and up-to-date; and the member having paid the annual membership fee of the first year.

9.2 Membership application is made in written form. Applicants may apply with a petition they have written or use a ready-made application form prepared by the Administrative Board, either by submitting a wet-signed copy to the Association or emailing it using a legally valid electronic sign. In order the application to be processed, applicant must submit other required documents and the receipts for the fee payments to the Administrative Board as well.

9.3 Documents required for membership application include a diploma, graduation certificate or an official certificate showing the applicant is TEDU alumni or a TEDU member, certificate of good conduct and two recent portrait photographs.

ARTICLE - 10  MEMBERSHIP TERMINATION

Members may terminate their membership with a petition any time they wish. Members who have left or dismissed from the association are liable to pay their annual membership fees for the period they were the member of the association. The Association reserves the rights to collect these debts by legal means.

10.1 Those who no longer fulfill the requirements mentioned in the Article 6 are dismissed from the ASSOCIATION.

10.2 Members who have failed to pay their annual membership fees in time for two successive fiscal years despite the written warnings issued by the Administrative Board are dismissed from membership by the decision of the Administrative Board in case the member still fails to pay their membership fee debts in three months following the issuance of the second written warning in this regard.

10.3 Administrative Board may decide to dismiss members who do not comply with the association objectives, General Assembly decisions or who violates disciplinary regulations or the Law of Associations upon proposal by the Disciplinary Board. Members who have been dismissed by the Administrative Board decision may request a revision from the board that issued the decision in 30 (thirty) days. If the related board upholds the decision, then the member has the right to make an appeal to the General Assembly of the Association.

10.4 In case the member has deceased, their membership terminates ipso facto. Related procedures are to be carried out by the Administrative Board. Any remaining debt is written off.

10.5 The Administrative Board may take legal action to collect the debts of a member who has left or dismissed from the Association for a reason other than death. Members who have left or dismissed from the association are erased from the member register. They cannot have a claim on the assets of the Association.

CHAPTER 3 — BODIES OF THE ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE - 11  ORGANS

Organs of the ASSOCIATION are given below.

11.1 General Assembly of the Association
11.2 Administrative Board
11.3 Supervisory Board
11.4 Disciplinary Board

ARTICLE - 12  GENERAL ASSEMBLY

General Assembly is the top organ of the Association.

Ordinary General Assembly is to be held in February every two years with the participation of Association members. Venue of the session is where the center of the Association is. All decisions of the General Assembly are taken with absolute majority of the participants except for charter amendments and termination of the Association.
ARTICLE - 13 GENERAL ASSEMBLY CONVOCATION AND ADJOURNMENT

The Administrative Board draws up a list of the members who are holding the right to attend the General Assembly. Those members are to be convoked through publishing the date, venue and agenda of the session in at least one newspaper or on the website of the Association, or by a written notification, sending an email to the address provided by the member or sending an SMS to the phone number of the member or through regional broadcast media at least fifteen days prior to the session.

A second session date and venue is also to be stated in case the General Assembly could not be held due to a quorum was not present. Interval between the first and the second sessions cannot be less than seven days and more than sixty days.

Half of the total Association members plus 1 member must be present in the first session. In case this is not constituted in the first session, no quorum is sought in the second. But the total number of attendees cannot be less than twice as much as the total number of members in Administrative and Supervisory Boards.

If the Assembly has to be adjourned due to a reason other than a quorum was not present, members should be notified thereof along with the reason of adjournment in line with the convocation procedures to be followed for the first session. Second session is required to be held within six months at the latest following the date of adjournment. Members must be convoked again in line with the principles mentioned in the first paragraph.

ARTICLE - 14 PARTICIPATION IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

In order to attend the General Assembly, to participate in the discussions and to vote, members must carry the General Assembly document provided by the Administrative Board and show it when requested. Every original member has one vote in the General Assembly. Members must cast their votes in person. Honorary members cannot enter a motion nor can be elected as a full/substitute member to the organs of the Association.

ARTICLE - 15 DECISION-MAKING IN ORDINARY GENERAL ASSEMBLIES

Decision on the Ordinary General Assembly is to be taken at the Administrative Board meeting held at least 15 days prior to the designated date and announced in line with the ruling regulation.

The Administrative Board is required to lay the groundwork to ensure the start of the General Assembly in the designated time as announced.

Any subject which needs to be discussed or resolved including charter amendments can be added into the agenda as well as board elections in Ordinary General Assemblies.

15.1 Opening of the Session and Election of the Bureau

Members to attend the General Assembly must sign against their names on the list and proceed to the venue of the session. If a quorum is not present, this has to be reported via minutes.

The General Assembly is to be inaugurated by the chairperson or vice chairperson of the Administrative Board, or the eldest member of the Administrative Board present in the session.

Chairperson of the Bureau of the Assembly is to be elected by the General Assembly to preside the session as well as the other members of the Bureau of the Assembly including a vice chairperson and secretaries as many as required.

The session is presided by the Bureau of the Assembly. At the end of the session, the minutes of the meeting held and signed by the Bureau is to be submitted to the Administrative Board including the documents attached.

15.2 Board Nomination

Association members who wish to nominate for full or substitute membership of the boards of the association can apply to the Bureau of the Assembly with a written statement in person or by the proposal of another member.

15.3 Electoral System

15.3.1 Members who wish to nominate in groups can submit their combined lists consisting of full/substitute membership candidates for Administrative, Supervisory and Disciplinary Boards to the Bureau of the Assembly. In case of submission of multiple lists, different colors can be attributed to the lists according to the requests by the nominees. Members may wish to nominate in person for any board membership in groups or as individuals, however a separate ballot cannot be designated for them.

15.3.2 Complete lists of nominees for the boards of the Association are to be declared by the Bureau of the Association prior to passing on to the agenda item for the elections session.

15.3.3 Members cast their votes in the voting booth using the “empty” and sealed envelopes submitted to them by the ballot box. A separate empty and sealed envelope is to be used for the election of federation delegates.

15.3.4 Administrative, Supervisory and Disciplinary Board elections are to be held by secret ballot unless otherwise decided in the General Assembly. Election of the delegates for the affiliated federations is to be held in a separate ballot box by secret vote again. Other decisions are to be taken by open ballot. Secret ballot consists of the lists or votes enclosed in the envelopes sealed by the Chairperson of the Bureau of the Association cast into an empty ballot box by the members and thereupon counted openly after the completion of the voting session. Method of open ballot is to be determined by the Chairperson. General Assembly decisions are taken by the absolute majority of the total members present in the venue unless otherwise agreed.

15.3.5 Members who wish to make a mixed list are to fill in an empty ballot only and put this ballot into the envelope.
ARTICLE - 16 DECISION-MAKING IN EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL ASSEMBLIES

An Extraordinary General Assembly is to be convened in case there are agenda items that the previous Ordinary General Assembly has not been able to resolve or the agenda items those emerged afterwards and require immediate resolution before an ordinary session can be convened.

Extraordinary General Assembly can be convened provided that one fifth of the total registered members of the ASSOCIATION have applied in written to the Administrative Board for the same agenda item or decided by the two thirds of the total members of the Administrative Board or by the decision of the Administrative Board based on the official decision of the Supervisory Board in this direction.

Any topic that can be an agenda item in the ordinary session, including charter amendments and board elections, can be discussed in the Extraordinary General Assembly. Additions can be made to the previously declared agenda in due form or certain agenda items can be removed by the approval of the General Assembly.

Extraordinary General Assembly is also subject to the same principles as the Ordinary General Assembly in terms of convocation and decision-making.

ARTICLE - 17 CHARTER AMENDMENT

Charter amendment can be made by the decision of General Assembly. Two thirds majority of the total number of members who are holding the right to attend the General Assembly is required for charter amendment. If a session has to be adjourned due to insufficient quorum, then a quorum is not sought for a second session. But, the total number of attendees cannot be less than twice as much as the total number of members in Administrative and Supervisory Boards. Decision on charter amendment can be taken by 2/3 majority vote of the total members who are holding the right to vote and currently present in the meeting.

ARTICLE - 18 DUTIES AND AUTHORITIES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Main duties and authorities of the General Assembly are as follows:

18.1 To take decisions about the issues regarding the objectives and fields of activity of the ASSOCIATION.
